

HANS SELYE CENTENNIAL COMMEMORATIVE SESSION

AND OPENING CEREMONY OF THE FINE ARTS EXHIBITION “STRESS”

August 24, 2007, 14.00-17.00

organised by the

Hans Selye Hungarian Society of Behavioral Sciences and Medicine

www.selyesociety.hu

HANS SELYE CENTENNIAL COMMEMORATIVE SESSION

August 24, 2007 - Detailed program

14.00 Opening ceremony of the fine arts exhibition “STRESS”

assembled by the Downtown Artists Society

STRESS AT ALL

Lóránd Bertók “Frédéric Joliot-Curie” National Research Institute for Radiobiology and Radiohygiene, Budapest, Hungary.

14.20-15.30 Commemorative talks and round table discussion

Moderator: Adrienne Stauder, „Hans Selye” Hungarian Society of Behavioral Sciences and Medicine”, vice president

MULTITALENTED HANS SELYE: AN ORIGINAL GENERATOR AND A LEGENDARY COMMUNICATOR OF SCIENCE

Árpád Somogyi, European Affairs of the Toxicology Forum, Berlin, Germany

THE SCIENTIFIC LEGACY OF HANS SELYE

István Berczi Department of Immunology at the Faculty of Medicine, University of Manitoba, Winnipeg, Canada

WHY SELYE DID NOT GET THE NOBEL PRIZE FOR STRESS OR THE CLASSIFICATION AND NOMENCLATURE OF STEROIDS?

Sándor Szabo, VA Medical Center & School of Medicine, University of California-Irvine, Long Beach, CA, USA

ONE YEAR WITH PROFESSOR HANS SELYE, THE FATHER OF STRESS CONCEPT

George Lázár, Institute of Pathophysiology, Science University of Szeged, Hungary

15.30-17.00 Informal round table discussion about Hans Selye and his famous Institute of Experimental Medicine and Surgery at the Montreal French University with his former co-workers:

Árpád Somogyi, István Berczi, Sándor Szabo, George Lázár, Lóránd Bertók, Irén Mécs